

CD RELEASE - MAY 2004

Logic? proudly announces the release of its second album 'The Waiting Game'. This new release showcases the ensemble's diverse musical influences, and their evolving group concept. Whilst maintaining a focus on developing a fresh, contemporary sound, the group also prides itself on preserving the spontaneous and interactive approach of the jazz tradition.

The 7 tracks presented on 'The Waiting Game' represent a variety of different styles, and contrast from compositions based on complex rhythmic and harmonic patterns, to simple grooves. 6 of the tracks are originals, with the only cover being an extended arrangement of the Dizzy Gillespie classic, 'A Night in Tunisia'.

The recording sees the addition of Craig Schneider (keyboards) and Dave Newdick (trumpet) to the line up. This expanded framework brings a new range of textures and timbres to the group's arsenal.

This is the second Logic? release through Vorticity Music. Their self titled debut album was released in 2001 and received outstanding reviews and international airplay.

'The Waiting Game' will be launched at Bennetts Lane jazz club on Thursday 20th May, 9.30pm, and will feature special guests Craig Schneider [keys], Dave Newdick [trumpet], Paul Williamson [trumpet] and Jordan Murray [trombone].

'..tasteful original compositions.....excellent solos...'

JOSEF MUSKA, JAZZLIVE MAGAZINE, GERMANY - JULY 2002

'This album is simply beautiful'

CARINA PRANGE, JAZZ DIMENSIONS, GERMANY, JULY 2002

'The musicians are accomplished, and Glenn Cannon's bell like guitar tone meshes tightly with Tim Wilson's tenor to create a smooth unified sound.....'
